

The Archives Storyteller Series

*A unique series of presentations from the
Ulster County Archives*

Presented by the

Ulster County Clerk's Office

The Archives Storyteller Series is a unique set of presentations that are designed to tell the historical stories that are reflected in the archival records found in the Ulster County Clerk's Archives Collection.

Ulster County Clerk Nina Postupack is pleased to offer any one of our already prepared presentations either in-person or via CD/DVD. We can also tailor a presentation to your group's particular interests. Some of the topics already available include:

Historic Sites & Figures, Maritime Connections, Maps, Ashokan Reservoir, Genealogy, and Immigration & Naturalization
